

STRATON TO ANSWER M'ARTHUR'S ATTACK

Will Preach Sunday on the Resignation of Former Pastor From Calvary.

The Rev. John Roach Straton announced last night that he intended to take official cognizance of the resignation of Dr. Robert Stuart MacArthur from the pulpit of the Calvary Baptist Church, of which Dr. MacArthur was the founder.

Dr. Straton said that a discontented and defeated minority group of former officeholders had relished an old story for the purpose of discrediting him as pastor, and although his policy was to maintain silence in the face of personal attacks he felt the present statements were interfering with the work of the church.

Dr. MacArthur withdrew his name as pastor emeritus of the church to which he had belonged for forty years last Autumn, announcing that he was not in accord with the policy of "sensational sermons" followed by Dr. Straton. A few days ago he withdrew altogether, and his daughter, Mrs. Montague Howard, of 2 West Ninety-fifth street, also resigned. Dr. Straton said he might also have something to say "in a humorous vein" about "sensationalism" as it was practiced from the pulpit of his church long before he became the pastor.

The charge that nearly 250 former members of the congregation had gone to other churches for spiritual advice since the advent of the new pastor, Dr. Straton characterized as ridiculous. "Not more than a handful of people have left—not more than fifteen in all," he said. To offset this he asserted that 194 new members had come into the church within the last year alone.

When asked if it was true that seven out of the nine original trustees were no longer members of the church, Dr. Straton answered that he had "practically an entire new board, not only of trustees, but also of deacons, who believe in progressive methods."

A number of the congregation have gone to the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, of which Dr. Cornelius Woolfkin is the Washington, D. C., March 8.

PRESIDENT HARDING filled out his income tax blank today. Callers at the White House were few, for Mr. Harding had heaps of figures to go over. In addition to his income from the Government, $75,000 a year, he had to include the revenues received from his newspaper, the Marion Star, and from other sources.

pastor. At least two of the former trustees are now in Dr. Woolfkin's pastorate, and only last Sunday four women members of the congregation went over in a body to the Fifth Avenue Church.

Mrs. M. E. Dusenberry of 143 East Thirty-fourth street, who left the church after having been in the congregation for twenty years, and a member of the Bible class, said:

"When I took my place in Dr. Woolfkin's church the atmosphere seemed so harmonious and quiet that I was glad I had made the decision. A great many other people came over just after I did so that it almost seemed like Calvary Church with the controversial atmosphere left out."

Many of the persons who shifted their allegiance from the Calvary Baptist Church to the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church came over several years ago, before Dr. Straton assumed the position of pastor, according to John Glover of the National Y. M. C. A., who has charge of the enrollment books of Dr. Woolfkin's church.

WOMAN'S SLAYER USED IRON BAR, DOCTOR FINDS

Police Question Men in Ostrowicz Case.

Robert R. Armstrong, County Physician of Passaic, N. J., performed an autopsy yesterday on the body of Alexandra Ostrowicz, found in a clump of bushes on an unfrequented path in the country section of Clifton. He found that the woman had been beaten to death with an iron bar and not shot as at first reported. Her skull had been crushed by repeated blows.

Several men who knew the woman were questioned by the police of Clifton and Passaic, but no arrests have been made.

PRESIDENT LEAVES FOR REST IN FLORIDA

Will Cast Aside Official Duties as Much as Possible and Play Golf.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Accompanied by Mrs. Harding and a small party of friends in official life, President Harding left Washington this evening to pass a week in Florida in rest and recreation.

The President departed at 6 o'clock on a special section of a regular Atlantic Coast Line train, and will arrive at 6 o'clock to-morrow night in St. Augustine, where he plans to spend most of the week's vacation. The Presidential party, in addition to the President and Mrs. Harding, included Attorney-General Daugherty, Speaker Gillett of the House of Representatives, Under-Secretary Fletcher of the State Department, Brig.-Gen. Sawyer, his personal physician, and George B. Christian, Jr., his secretary.

During his stay in Florida the President will attempt so far as possible to cast aside official cares and get as much rest and recreation as possible. He intends to spend much of the time playing golf.

Although it had been known for several days that the President was considering a trip to some winter resort in the South, definite announcement of the President's intentions was not made until an hour before his departure. Before leaving he cleaned up a number of matters, holding conferences with Secretaries Hughes and Mellon on the question of participation by the United States in the Geneva Economic Conference, transmitting to the Senate information requested in the treaty ratification fight, and receiving from Attorney-General Daugherty an opinion as to the eligibility of Senator Smoot of Utah and Representative Burton of Ohio to membership on the Allied Debt Refunding Commission.

'OUTLAW LOVER' SWEARS TO CEASE HEART QUEST

Dominick MARRA of 93 President street, Brooklyn, promised that he would behave himself for life when he had a hearing yesterday before Magistrate Reynolds in the Fifth Avenue Court, Brooklyn. He said that never again so long as he lived would he try to make love to Miss Anna Carey, school teacher, of 83½ Summit street, Brooklyn, who charged him with wooing her so tempestuously for several years that he became a frightful annoyance and a downright nuisance.

"I'm through with love," said Marra. "And I'm off this woman for life."

Marra's arrest was obtained by Miss Carey after he had stood for twelve hours on her doorstep, now and then chanting love sonnets and apparently determined to stick it out on that line if it took all summer, and after he had started a red hot novelette entitled "The Outlaw Lover," of which Marra presumably was the hero.

Marra will be required to file a bond to keep the peace.

The Magnificent Trio

Just as the mighty Olympic provides a standard of luxury known throughout the world as utmost in ocean comfort, so now a trio of White Star ships in our Cherbourg-Southampton service advance trans-Atlantic passenger travel to an even higher plane.

This service includes:

The new Majestic (56,000 tons)—
largest ship in the world;

The new Homeric (34,000 tons)— largest twin-screw steamer in the world;

The Olympic (46,500 tons)— whose name is a synonym of high achievement in ocean travel service.

This mighty trio, whose collective tonnage is more than double that of the 132 ships of the famed Spanish Armada, maintain a weekly schedule of sailings from New York, beginning in the spring of 1922.

This service is no less remarkable for its regularity than for the individual size and splendor of its ships. Travelers who formerly waited an Olympic sailing date to channel ports may now sail any week on one of these great ships.

Early bookings are suggested to secure most desirable accommodations for spring or summer crossings.

FIVE MILLION DOLLARS

Must Be Raised
Will Be Raised

THE PAST two or three days has seen a perfect flood of subscriptions coming in to Campaign Headquarters. These subscriptions are of all kinds—from the pennies, nickels and dimes in a child's savings bank up to amounts running into the thousands.

The Jews of New York were a little slow at the beginning of this Campaign but now that they are familiar with the whole situation, they are making a response that is in complete harmony with their natural generous impulses.

The $5,000,000 will be raised without question if every man, woman and child in the City who has made up his mind to subscribe, will do so NOW.

No one has ever been made poor through giving.

In fact the more the Jews of New York give, the richer they are!

Richer in the regard of their fellow New Yorkers.

Richer in the estimation of the people throughout the country.

Richer in the blessings that will come to them from the suffering people across the water.

Richer in their own esteem and self-respect.

New York cannot do less than raise $5,000,000. New York will not do less than raise this sum of money.

No self-respecting Jew wants it said of him that he has failed to do his duty.

The Jews of New York have always assumed their full responsibility—not only caring for the Jew here, but have assumed their responsibility in all of the non-Jewish philanthropies which have presented themselves over these many years.

Let EACH one of us do his duty, and in doing so not only help save the lives of hundreds of thousands of orphans, other hundreds of thousands of old men and women—but give answer to the carping critics from other parts of the country, who have said that we in New York are a non-generous people.

If you have a subscription blank, sign it and send it to New York Headquarters.

If not, sign the subscription coupon on the bottom of this announcement and send it in AT ONCE.

Be as generous as you can so that we may be able to send the needed help to our suffering brethren.

STANDARD EIGHT

Yours to Command

GENIUS of Standard engineers, combined with intimate knowledge of what the fine car buyer wants, has produced this Standard Eight—the car that is yours to command.

Each vital unit in Standard construction is built in Standard Steel Car Company manufacturing plants, from the raw steel to the finished unit.

The biggest forward step ever made in motor lubrication is an exclusive Standard feature—airplane motor lubrication—developed through the necessities of airplane service during the war, when motor efficiency had to be positive.

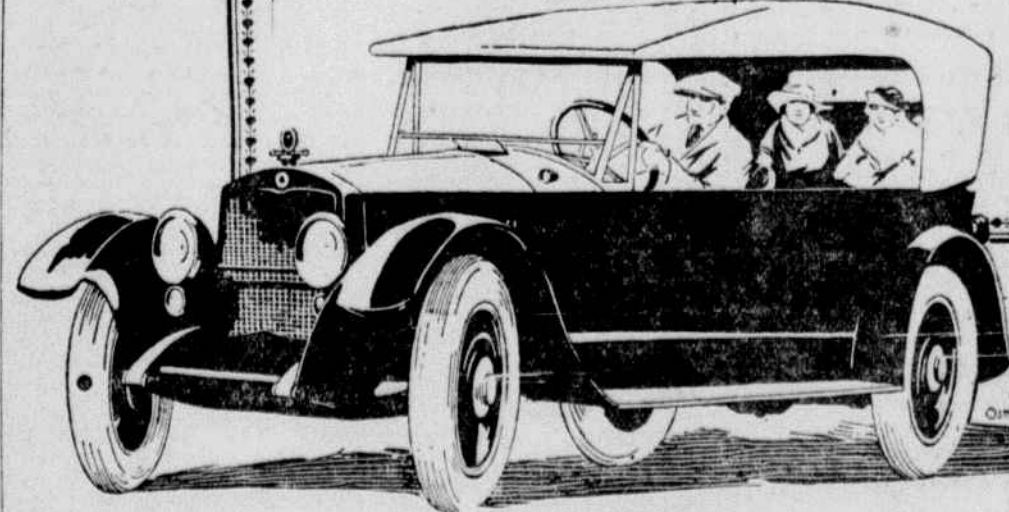

Under the Standard's high-arched hood flows a smooth silken power that laughs at hills, leaps nimbly to the throttle in the open road, and loafs with lazy strength in traffic.

The Standard is a car with traditions. It has an earned reputation for power, good looks and luxuriant comfort. Behind it stand limitless resources of the Standard plants.

STANDARD MOTOR CAR COMPANY, INC., Pittsburgh, Pa.

At the Brooklyn Motor Car Show, at the New York City sales branch, 65th St. at Broadway, at the Brooklyn sales branch, No. 1127 Atlantic Ave. or at any dealer headquarters anywhere, you can see the Standard Eight. Make it a point to inquire about the exclusive Standard feature—airplane motor lubrication. It is the biggest forward step ever made in motor lubrication—hence motor efficiency.
